Selection and Responsibilities of Duty Officers

A duty officer is assigned to designated departmental locations for administrative decision making during non-routine working hours.

I. Positions Eligible for Appointment as Duty Officer

A. Facility Duty Officers

The deputy warden, chief of security, unit managers, and case manager IV or higher will be assigned as duty officers. The facility head may be assigned as a duty officer.

B. Community Corrections Duty Officers

The deputy warden, unit manager, chief of security, and case manager IV or higher will be assigned as duty officers. The facility head may be assigned as a duty officer.

C. Probation and Parole Duty Officers

The assistant regional supervisors and team supervisors will be assigned as duty officers. The deputy director of a region may be assigned as a duty officer.

D. Private Prisons/Halfway Houses

The private prison/halfway house contract monitors will be assigned as duty officers for private prisons/halfway houses. The private prison administrative manager may be assigned as a duty officer.

E. Director of Fugitive Apprehension and Investigations (FAI)'s Duty Officers

The director of FAI will designate supervisors and agent III's as duty officers for the office of FAI.

II. Briefing

Prior to appointment as duty officers, individuals will be briefed in the specific duties and requirements of the position by the appropriate facility/unit head.

III. Development and Revisions of Schedules

Quarterly duty officer schedules will be established, maintained, and distributed to all affected staff and facilities/units.

IV. Tour of Duty and Availability Requirements

A. Tour of Duty

Duty officers will be designated to serve continuously for one week intervals beginning at 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday and terminating at 5:00 p.m. the following Tuesday.

B. Availability Requirements

Facility and unit duty officers will be accessible and available to report to the facility/unit if needed. If it becomes necessary for the duty officer to be away from the facility/unit and inaccessible, then an alternate duty officer will be designated to cover during the absence.

V. Notification and Responsibilities of the Duty Officer

A. Reportable Critical/Serious Incidents

Definitions of, and guidelines, for reporting critical/serious incidents will be in accordance with OP-050108 entitled "Use of Force Standards and Reportable Incidents."

B. Written Reports

1. A duty officer log will be maintained as instructed by the appropriate facility/unit head.
2. All calls received, with pertinent information included, will be entered into the duty officer log.

C. Emergency Plans

As required by OP-050102 entitled "Departmental and Facility Emergency Plans for Riots, Disturbances, Utility Failures and Major Disasters for State Operated Facilities," duty officers will maintain a copy of written emergency plans as applicable for their assigned work location.
